Dear Mr. Forkey:

On behalf of the Manchester Police Department Mounted Unit, I extend my gratitude for aiding the Unit in its endeavor to maintain itself as a self-sufficient entity. The web site that you so generously developed free of cost has, over the past year and a half, allowed the public to learn more about the Unit—what it does, its calendar of events, and how a citizen might provide help.

The web site has also been a great aid in raising much needed funds to keep the Unit self-sufficient and allowing it to continue as an essential component of the Department's community policing efforts. The Mounted Unit's main function is to assist with high visibility patrol of the city, but the horses and riders also act as goodwill ambassadors for the Department. Citizens flock to them whenever they are out and about in the city and their presence is frequently requested at local events.

Once again, I thank you Mr. Forkey for coming to the aid of the Mounted Unit.

Sincerely,

John A. Jaskolka
Chief of Police
